I am a wife and I am scorned

I am a wife and I am scorned, I am faithful and I'm outraged. Heavens, what have I done? And yet he is my heart, my husband, my love, my hope.
I love him, but he is unfaithful, I hope, but he is cruel, will he let me die?
O God, valor is missing – valor and constancy.

Like Melodies

Thoughts, like melodies, Steal softly through my mind, Like spring flowers they blossom And drift away like fragrance.

Yet when words come and capture them

And bring them before my eyes, They turn pale like grey mist And vanish like a breath

Yet surely in rhyme A fragrance lies hidden, Summoned by moist eyes From the silent seed.

Vain Serenade

He: Good evening, my sweetheart, Good evening, my child! I come because I love you; ah! Open up your door to me, open up your door!
She: My door's locked,
I won't let you in;
Mother gave me good advice –
If you were allowed in,
All would be over with me!

He: The night's so cold, The wind's so icy My heart is freezing, My love will go out; Open up, my child

She: if your love goes out, Then let it go out! If it keeps going out, Then go home to bed and go to sleep! Goodnight, my lad!

Eternal Love

Dark how dark in forest and field! Evening already, and the world is silent.

Nowhere a light and nowhere smoke, And even the lark is silent now too. Out of the village there comes a lad, Escorting his sweetheart home,

He leads her past the willow-copse, Talking so much and of so many things:

'If you suffer sorry and suffer shame,
Same for what others think of me.

Then let our love be severed as swiftly,

As swiftly as once we two were plighted.

Let us depart in rain and depart in wind,

As swiftly as once we two were plighted.'

The girl speaks, the girl says: 'Our love cannot be severed!

Steel is strong and so is iron, Our love is even stronger still:

Iron and steel can both be reforged, But our love, who shall change it?

Iron and steel can be melted down, Our love must endure forever!'

If my verses had wings

My verses would flee, sweet and frail,

To your garden so fair, If my verses had wings, Like a bird.

They would fly, like sparks, To your smiling hearth, If my verses had wings, Like the mind.

Pure and faithful to your side They'd hasten night and day, If my verses had wings, Like love!

An offering

Here are the fruit, the flowers, the leaves, and the branches And here too my heart that beats just for you. Do not tear it with your two white hands

And may the humble gift please your lovely eyes.

I come all covered still with the dew Frozen to my brow by the morning breeze.

Let my fatigue, finding rest at your feet.

Dream those dear moments that will give it peace.

On your young breast let me roll my head

Still ringing from your recent kisses; After its sweet tumult grant it peace,

And let me sleep a little, since you rest.

Exquisite hour

The white moon Gleams in the woods; From every branch There comes a voice Beneath the boughs

O my beloved.

The pool reflects,
Deep mirror,
The silhouette
Of the black willow
Where the wind is weeping
Let us dream, it is the hour.

A vast and tender Consolation Seems to fall From the sky The moon illumines Exquisite hour
