PROGRAM NOTES

Katahj Copley describes “Halcyon Hearts” as “an ode to love and how it affects us all...We all are united with the common thread of passion from the heart”. Copley dedicates the work to those who love in spite of negativity, hatred, or evil that exists in the world. Halcyon denotes a time in which a person is ideally happy or at peace, and the work evolves into a celebration of one finding their love or passion. Copley utilizes warm major 7th chords, long and lyric melodic lines, and engaging rhythmic motifs that feed into the natural energy of the ensemble as the sonic journey in love unfolds.

Ralph Vaughan Williams, a prominent English composer, is perhaps best known for his symphonies and large-scale works. After working with the Salvation Army Brass Band in the early 1950’s, Williams was so impressed with the musicianship of the group he composed a work specifically for them. The resulting work, “Prelude on Three Welsh Hymn Tunes”, utilized “Oh the Deep, Deep, Love of Jesus”, “Lord Enthroned in Heavenly Splendor”, and “Come Thou Long Expected Jesus”. Williams sought to capture the vocal-like quality of the brass band utilizing these three well known hymn tunes. These three hymn tunes are found in many hymnals as “Oh the Deep, Deep, Love of Jesus”, “Lord Enthroned in Heavenly Splendor”, and “Come Thou Long Expected Jesus”. The setting for wind band was completed by James Curnow.

In 2004, Dwayne Milburn was asked to write a piece in memory of Nick Stegeman, an important member in the Calvin Christian Schools community in Michigan. “Meditation” serves as the middle movement of a suite that Milburn entitled “Music for Bright Youth”. It combines the Lutheran hymn “Come Thou Long Expected Jesus” with American folk song “The Long and Winding Road” in an emotional outpouring that seeks to find peace despite the loss of a loved one.

In 1908 at the Boston Food Fair, John Philip Sousa and his band debuted “The

WE ASK YOUR COOPERATION

Please silence or turn off all cell phones and other electronic devices. Video and audio recording and/or broadcasting is strictly prohibited by copyright laws. Devices used in this manner will be confiscated until after the performance.

A WORD ABOUT CHILDREN

Families with children are always welcome at Messiah University Music Department events. For the courtesy of our performers and other patrons, we ask that you exit quickly and for as long as necessary with unsettled children. Everyone, regardless of age, must have a ticket.

IN THE EVENT OF AN EMERGENCY

Please take a minute now to locate the exits closest to your seat. During an emergency evacuation, an alarm will sound. If this happens, proceed calmly to that exit. Once you are out of the building, move to a location that is out of the path of emergency response vehicles.
